

June 2016

Fionnuala Quinlan
Consul General of Ireland
535 Boylston Street F15
Boston, MA 02116

Δ chairde,

We are delighted to be partnering with Glór na nGael to host a Scoil Samhraidh (Summer school) in Boston (June 17-19) celebrating our Irish language and culture.

This event is part of the official 1916 Commemorations and reflects the central place of the Irish language in the ideals of the Revolutionary Generation.

We will open the programme with a welcome reception at the Consulate General on Friday the 17th of June, followed by a full day of events on Saturday 18th in the Seaport Hotel. The programme will include discussions on The Yank and the Irish Language, the Irish in America & the 1916 Rising and a seannós dancing workshop.

This Summer School is an opportunity for Irish speakers, students and those wishing to be introduced to the language – as well as those with an interest in traditional Irish music and dance- to come together to celebrate Ireland’s unique cultural heritage. It is open to everyone and simultaneous translation will be provided throughout the day.

We extend a warm invitation to all those of Irish ancestry and our friends here in the US to join us and be part of our 1916 Commemorations.
